

Glove Specials

Stetson Gloves for Service

We are showing a wonderful assortment of Stetson Gloves made of carefully selected leathers—finished with utmost care and in a variety covering every need—whether it be for automobile—dress or heavy work.

Select your pair while our lines are most complete.

Children's Gloves, . . . 50c to $1.25
Boy's Gloves, . . . 50c, 75c, $1.00 $1.25
Men's Gloves, . . . 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00

FAIR & CO.
THE FAIR DEALERS

The Hartford Republican

FRIDAY, . . . . . OCTOBER 14

PERSONAL NEWS AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Mr. Roll Riley was in Morgantown Tuesday.

ROOMS FOR RENT—
MRS. S. J. WEDDING.

Mr. Tom Owen of Hefflin, was in town Wednesday.

Rye and Grass Seed for sale by
W. E. ELLIS & BRO.

Mr. Harold Holbrook spent Tuesday in Owensboro.

Mr. Jim Minton has moved to a house on Dog street.

Mr. Marvin Parks has moved to the McHenry property.

Mrs. Roy Washer, of Omaha, Neb., is visiting her sister, Mrs. U. S. Carson.

Do not forget the Automobile Races at the Fair Grounds tomorrow.

AUTOMOBILE RACES—At Ohio County Fair Grounds, October 15th, 1921.

Mr. R. T. Collins spent several days here with his family the first of the week.

Mrs. Sopora Bartlett of Owensboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Lake, near town.

Mr. W. S. Tinsley was in Louisville Saturday, in relation to the business of this office.

Mr. James Wedding of Barrette's Ferry, called at this office while in town Monday.

Mrs. Robert Plummer of Centertown, is spending the week with relatives in town.

Messrs. Bird Wallace and John Ragsdale of Sulphur Springs, were in town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pate of Beaver Dam, were guests of their son, Mr. Addis Pate, Sunday.

Mr. Willis Hefflin of Owensboro, was in town Wednesday.

Dr. Horace Pendleton and wife were in Owensboro Wednesday.

Mr. Frank Everly of Centertown, was among our visitors Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Tappan was in Louisville from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mr. M. L. Heavrin was in Owensboro Wednesday on legal business.

Mrs. I. S. Mason of Buford, spent Saturday and Sunday in Owensboro.

Mrs. Ernie Morton of Centertown, was a guest of Mrs. John Bell Wednesday.

This office is now making the ballots to be used at the approaching election.

Miss Anna Belle King spent the week-end with Miss Clara Hoover, of Barnett's Creek.

Miss Bessie Morton is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, near Centertown.

We will have a car of Fertilizer within the next few days.

W. E. ELLIS & BRO.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Simmerman went to Owensboro Thursday and will return today.

Miss Emily Pendleton has returned from a two week's visit with friends in Louisville.

Miss Ernestine Ralph, who is teaching at Simmons, spent the week-end with her parents here.

Mr. Josie Duke has returned to Dundee, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. U. S. Carson.

Mrs. A. Robinson of near Hefflin, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Porter.

Remember the speaking dates of the Republican candidates next week, and give them a good hearing.

Mrs. Cora Bean has bought the general merchandises business of Mr. J. M. Magan, at Sulphur Springs.

Fresh Shipment of Lowney's Candies. See the new Crest Package at OHIO COUNTY DRUG CO'S. 1612

Do not fail to read Judge Slack's article on the eighth page of this issue.

B. H. Moore and Miss Lurene Trail of Simmons, were married by Judge Cook, at the courthouse Thursday.

On School Fair day the P. T. A. will serve lunches and maintain a check room. Prices reasonable.

Mrs. A. D. Kirk has returned from a two week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Woodward in Louisville.

Mr. Arthur Leach left Monday for West Frankfort, Illinois, where he will be employed during the winter.

The fiscal court will meet in next month to elect an almshouse keeper and to attend to other routine business.

Mrs. E. L. Brooks of Barnett's Creek, is very ill in Owensboro, where she recently went for treatment.

Miss Birdie May Daugherty of Morgantown, has accepted a position as instructor in the Hartford high school.

Dr. J. C. Hoover and Mrs. Hoover of Owensboro, were guests of Dr. E. B. Pendleton and Mrs. Pendleton, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hancock will arrive here tomorrow to spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gillespie.

Miss Mattie Kuykendoll of Centertown, was a visitor Saturday night and Sunday with her aunt Mrs. Worth Tichenor.

Put panes in your windows or your windows will put pain in you. Get them from the OHIO COUNTY DRUG CO. 1612

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carson and daughter, Miss Anna Rae, spent Wednesday in Owensboro.

Mrs. F. E. Smith went to Owensboro Saturday and remained with her husband this week, who is engaged in circuit court.

Mrs. ——— Porter, of Rob Roy, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Leach, and other relatives here.

We are in the market for eggs and poultry every day in the year. Highest cash prices paid.

W. E. ELLIS & BRO.

Mr. Emory Schroeter of Ohio, was called home last week on account of the serious illness of his child. The little one is improving.

Dr. C. M. Heavrin of Hawesville, and Dr. Sam Heavrin of Owensboro, were guests of their brother, Mr. M. L. Heavrin, Thursday.

Mr. J. E. Park closed a successful singing school at Mt. Herman, Oct. 2nd, and began teaching a singing school at Beda, Saturday night.

Mrs. T. E. McQuary and children, and Mrs. ——— Jeffries, of Bells' Run, were guests of Mrs. McQuary's mother, Mrs. A. W. Mills, Wednesday.

Have you seen our new line of Flash Lights? See the Spot Light which will penetrate darkness 300 feet.

OHIO COUNTY DRUG CO.

Mrs. Susan Stewart of Rosine, who was run down by a work train and seriously injured last week, is reported to be in a critical condition.

Just 429 years ago Wednesday Columbus discovered America. A few changes have occurred in the country since old Cum came across.

Mrs. Anna Morris, who has spent the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Mary Malden, near town, returned to her home in Butler county Tuesday.

J. H. Flowers, state manager of the Woodmen of The World, was in Hartford the first of the week, in connection with the affairs of the local lodge.

Miss Winnie Simmerman underwent a minor operation at Owensboro last week, and has returned home. When a child Miss Simmerman was hit on her back by a baseball, and a small growth resulted, which was removed by the operation.

Mrs. Sarah Bush and daughter, Mrs. Patterson of Hodgenville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Acton, near Sulphur Springs. Mrs. Bush was formerly Miss Sarah Wright and was reared in the neighborhood of her recent visit.

The county clerk has made out vouchers for all the claims allowed at the meeting of the fiscal court last week, and they are now in the hands of the sheriff.

Miss Catherine McGrail is limping from the effect of a sprained ankle, resulting from a slip on a stairs step, at the Commercial Hotel, where she is rooming.

Mrs. U. S. Carson, who has been under treatment at the Owensboro city hospital for several weeks, returned to her home Sunday, very much improved in health.

Mrs. Will Lake and daughter, Corrie, of near town returned from Owensboro Tuesday, where the little girl had undergone an operation for appendicitis, at the city hospital.

Miss Bessie Morton Gillespie, a nurse at the Jewish Hospital, Louisville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gillespie, and will remain here until the end of the month.

Mr. Marion Hatler, formerly a Democratic leader of Rosine precinct and a successful farmer, but now a citizen of Ballard county, visited his sons, Jim and Bill Hatler, near Rosine, recently.

Eyes tested and frames fitted by the latest method. We have a life certificate from the State Board of Health which authorizes us to test your eyes. Get your glasses now for your winter reading.

J. B. TAPPAN, Optometrist, Hartford, Ky.

Mr. Wade Baize has sold his stock of goods and business house, near the Bank of Hartford, to Mr. Tom Likens who will continue the business. Mr. Baize will probably engage in business at McHenry, from which point he moved to Hartford about three years ago.

When boasting starts it usually goes around. Judge Cook remarked the other day that he had married a gross of couples within the past two years. "Shucks, that's nothing," chimed in Otto Martin, "I have divorced nearly that many couples in the same length of time."

Mr. William E. Wright and Miss Annie Vaughn were married at Paducah Wednesday. Mr. Wright is in business at Russellville, and Miss Vaughn's home was at Sebree. Mr. Wright is a brother of Mrs. C. E. Smith of Hartford.

"Man" Tilford of Beaver Dam, who was taken to Louisville last week for an operation, is reported to be in a critical condition. Mr. Tilford's trouble originates from a wound inflicted while paring a corn on his toe, and blood poisoning followed.

Mr. M. H. Tappan and Miss Alma Taylor were married in Dallas, Texas, Thursday of last week. Mr. Tappan is a brother of Dr. J. B. Tappan of this city, and is a prosperous jeweler of Kaufman, Texas. Miss Taylor is the daughter of a wealthy and retired business man of that city.

This newspaper can be made of decidedly more interest to its readers if citizens of the county will take the trouble to report by telephone or otherwise, news happenings of their communities. Please bear this fact in mind and advise us of any unusual occurrences in your neighborhoods.

Miss Ione Hedrick and Mr. Gordon Vick were married recently in Owensboro. Miss Hedrick is a very lovable lady and had many friends while she lived in Hartford. Mr. Vick is a son of Mr. Sherman Vick, a wholesale grocer of Owensboro, and is a traveling salesman for his father's house.

Mr. Bill Reed of Horse Branch, who has been an engine man on the Horse Branch-Owensboro local Illinois Central train for the past twenty years, has resigned on account of ill health, and is moving to Dawson Springs. A Mr. Ebbitt of Paducah, will have charge of the train formerly pulled by Mr. Reed.

Mr. Lowell Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Owen of Adaburg, died October 7, at the home of his parents after an illness of tuberculosis extending over two years. Funeral services were conducted at Mt. Moriah church Sunday, by Rev. F. A. Sandefur, of Centertown, after which interment was in the local cemetery.

Mr. William Fair celebrated another birthday Monday. We do not know how many former birthday anniversaries Will has celebrated, and wish him the happy celebration of fifty more, but despite his youthful appearance, we bought our "wedding suit" of him, and we got married thirty-four years ago the sixth day of the present month, and we were then twenty-two.

Copyright 1921 Hart Schaffner & Marx

"Going Some"

You'll say so, when you see the new models in suits we have ready for you for fall; they're the liveliest styles that have been seen here.

Hart Schaffner & Marx made them; that's all you need to know as to quality and tailoring. You'll see for yourself that they are styled right.

And we know the prices are very low at

$45.00

COOPER BROS.

Beaver Dam, Ky.

TICHENOR-LEACH MOTOR CO.

Successors to Brown & Jarnagin

—Dealer in—

Automobiles and Accessories

GASOLINE AND CYLINDER OIL

Main Street.

HARTFORD, KY.

Big Close-Out Sale

Will offer for sale within the next thirty days my entire stock at cost, and even below cost. Now, if you want some bargains come at once, for this merchandise is going to sell. You will save some money. My loss is your gain. Have just received a new lot of rubber boots and shoes that will be sold at cost. Come and see.

Will also sell or rent my store house.

E. F. GABBERT, Sunnydale, Ky.

The Hartford Republican one year for only $1.50.